Who's in the room?

- A high-level network of cruise and cargo executives; Caribbean port officers; Caribbean government officials; including MARAD officials; U.S. and Caribbean diplomats
- We are in the process of confirming a Caribbean Head of State to serve as a Patron
- Other guests include Caribbean maritime training institutions' presidents, staff, and cadets
- This is an opportunity to credibly demonstrate the Sponsor's commitment to the Caribbean shipping community
- Your support adds value to your investment in the region

The Impact is real!

Our work is more than funding education for disadvantaged Caribbean youth who aspire to be part of the global shipping industry.

"I am the person who will get my family out of poverty"

A Partnership that transforms lives

This is what we hear month after month from our students whose only dream is to work in shipping, hopefully with your company at sea or shoreside.
